DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-41 allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

As to claim 1, the prior art of record, taken alone or in combination, fails to disclose or render obvious an accelerometer including: a mass pivotally attached to a rigid housing; an elastic support member suspending the mass; wherein at least a portion of the support member is a transducer, in combination with the rest of the limitations of claim 1.

As to claim 15, the prior art of record, taken alone or in combination, fails to disclose or render obvious an accelerometer including: a mass pivotally attached to a rigid housing; an elastic support member suspending the mass; and a fixed mandrel attached to the housing, in combination with the rest of the limitations of claim 15.

As to claim 20, the prior art of record, taken alone or in combination, fails to disclose or render obvious an apparatus for vertical seismic profiling including: a plurality of linear accelerometer, each with a mass pivotally attached to a rigid housing, an elastic support member suspending the mass, wherein at least a portion of the support member is a transducer, in combination with the rest of the limitations of claim 20.

As to claim 37, the prior art of record, taken alone or in combination, fails to disclose or render obvious a method of detecting acceleration including: providing a rigid housing having a mass pivotally attached within the housing; and an elastic support member connected to said mass and housing, in combination with the rest of the limitations of claim 37.
